

STRIKERS DEFY INJUNCTION

Post Pickets Around Plants and Continue to Use Persuasion on Nonunion Men.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Despite the fact that they were enjoined in the United States court yesterday from picketing the Allis-Chalmers plant and the gates on works pickets representing the striking machinists, watched these places today as usual. When the night pickets, numbering eight, left their stations at 6 a. m., they were replaced by a squad of twelve. Business Agent Ireland of the machinists said: "We shall continue to post our pickets. The people are with us, if the law, as interpreted by Judge Kohlsaat, is not. We will continue to use moral suasion in dealing with nonunion men and I believe Judge Kohlsaat will not interfere with us."

A CIRCUS IS IT?

Our competitors probably did not know that they were hitting the nail square on the head. Indeed it is a circus to watch the store filled with customers buying at a lively rate. Its a circus to hear them say how much more they paid for the same goods to some of our high-toned competitors. Its a circus to watch the pleased faces of the customers that save several days' wages on a suit or overcoat. The following prices we quote might sound like circus advertising, but everything mentioned is here to be shown to you. Men's gray overcoats $23.50, men's suits $25.00, $3.98, $5.00, etc.; lined duck coats $9c, wool socks 10c, fleece lined underwear 25c, winter caps 15c, handkerchiefs 3c, boys' long pants suits $1.95, Monarch shirts 48c, gloves 9c, neckwear 5c a pick, boys' sweaters 25c, boys' overalls 25c, mackintoshes 85c, strong work pants 69c, leggings 25c a pair, duck ulsters $1.55, etc.; line suits and overcoats very cheap. Bear in mind that admission to this circus is free, so come around and see the big show of bargains. That our competitors don't like our sale ought to be a convincing argument that they can't compete. Look for big signs—the Guarantee Selling Out, 1516-18 Capitol Ave., near Bennett's.
